Investment Risks

There can be no assurance that a Sub-Fund will achieve its investment objective. It should be appreciated that the value of a Unit in a Sub-Fund and any income from them is not guaranteed and may go down as well as up. An investment in a Sub-Fund involves investment risks, including possible loss of some or the entire amount invested. The capital return and income of a Sub-Fund are based on the capital appreciation and income on the investments it holds, less expenses incurred. Therefore, a Sub-Fund's return may be expected to fluctuate in response to changes in such capital appreciation or income. Fluctuations in the rate of exchange between the currency in which Units in a Sub-Fund are denominated and the currency of investment, if they are different, may also have the effect of causing the value of an investment in the Units to diminish or increase. Investors' attention is drawn to the specific risk factors set out in the section entitled Risk Factors.

10 Indices

10.1 General

- (a) A Sub-Fund intends to replicate the performance of an Index. The securities invested in by a Sub-Fund are defined by the relevant Sub-Fund's Index. The constituents of a Sub-Fund's Index may change over time but the exact composition of the Index is published on the website of the Index and is referred to in Schedule 4 . Potential investors in a Sub-Fund may obtain a breakdown of the constituents of the Sub-Fund's Index held by the Sub-Fund itself from the Standard & Poor's website (www.standardandpoors.com), the FTSE website (www.fsterussell.com) and the J.P. Morgan website (www.jpmorganmarkets.com) or from the Investment Manager, subject to any applicable restrictions under the licence which the Investment Manager has in place with the relevant Index Providers.
- (b) There is no assurance that a Sub-Fund's Index will continue to be calculated and published on the basis described in this Prospectus or that it will not be amended significantly. The past performance of each Index is not necessarily a guide to future performance.
- (c) The Management Company reserve the right, if they consider it in the interests of the Umbrella Fund or any Sub-Fund to do so, to substitute another index for the Index if:
 - (i) the weightings of constituent securities of the Index would cause the Sub-Fund (if it were to follow the Index closely) to be in breach of the Regulations;
 - (ii) the particular Index or index series ceases to exist;
 - (iii) a new index becomes available which supersedes the existing Index;
 - (iv) a new index becomes available which is regarded as the market standard for investors in the particular market and/or would be regarded as of greater benefit than the existing Index;

- (v) it becomes difficult to invest in stocks comprised within the particular Index;
- (vi) the relevant Index Provider increases its charges to a level which the Management Company consider too high;
- (vii) the quality (including accuracy and availability of data) of a particular Index has, in the opinion of the Management Company, deteriorated;
- (viii) a liquid futures market in which a particular Sub-Fund is investing ceases to be available; or
- (ix) where an index becomes available which more accurately represents the likely tax treatment of the investing Sub-Fund in relation to the component securities in that index.

10.2 Where such a change would result in a material difference between the constituent securities of the Index and the proposed index, relevant Authorised Participant and Securities & Commodities Authority approval will be sought in advance. Any such change in an Index will be notified to, and subject to the prior written approval of, the Securities & Commodities Authority and will be reflected in an updated Prospectus, key investor information document or other similar document (as mandated by the Securities & Commodities Authority) in respect of the relevant Sub-Fund issued after any such change takes place.

10.3 The Management Company may change the name of a Sub-Fund, particularly if its Index is changed. Any change to the name of a Sub-Fund will be approved in advance by the Securities & Commodities Authority and the relevant documentation pertaining to the relevant Sub-Fund will be updated to reflect the new name.

10.4 Where applicable, and in case of a Shariah compliant Sub-Fund, the Management Company shall ensure that the replacement index is approved by the Shariah Supervisory Committee.

11 Investment objective and policies

11.1 General

- (a) In seeking to achieve its investment objective, each Sub-Fund will purchase the equity and/or bonds or Sukuk securities in the relevant Index. Further details on the relevant Index for the Sub-Fund are set out in the Investment Policy section below and in Schedule 4 .
- (b) At all times the Investment Manager will seek to replicate the constituents and weightings of the Index referenced by the relevant Sub-Fund. Notwithstanding this, the Investment Manager may, in seeking to track the Index, choose to overweight or underweight certain equity and/or bonds or Sukuk securities in the relevant Index (i) where the effect of such decision is not material on the weightings; and (ii) where any proposed adjustment to the holdings would not incur an unreasonable cost. The Investment Manager may also sell equity and/or bonds or Sukuk securities that are represented in its Index in anticipation of their removal from the Index or purchase equity and/or bonds or Sukuk securities not represented in the Index in anticipation of their addition to the Index as may be specified by the Index provider ahead of any change date.
- (c) Subject to Schedule 3 , the Investment Manager may, where investment in a security is not possible due to a market disruption or otherwise, also invest in a portfolio of assets which may comprise money market or short- term instruments such as Investment Grade fixed or floating government securities, bankers' acceptances, certificates of deposit, and other suitable collective investment schemes (such as other funds or sub-funds so long as they are not established or managed by the Investment Manager or otherwise prohibited by the Regulations) (Eligible Collective Investment Schemes) which are money market Sub-Funds. The amount which may be invested in such other suitable collective investment schemes shall not exceed 10% of the Net Asset Value of the relevant Sub-Fund.

- (d) If the limits on investments contained in Schedule 3 are exceeded for reasons beyond the control of the Umbrella Fund, or as a result of the exercise of subscription or redemption rights, it shall adopt as a priority objective for its sales transactions the remedying of that situation, taking due account of the interests of investors. Each Sub-Fund is also subject to the relevant investment policies as outlined herein and, in the case of a conflict between such policies and Schedule 3, the more restrictive limitation shall apply.
- (e) Any change in the investment objective and any material change in investment policies will be subject to the prior consent of investors evidenced by a majority vote at a meeting of investors of the relevant Sub-Fund. In the event of a change in the investment objective and/or investment policy of a Sub-Fund a reasonable notification period shall be provided by the Management Company to the investors to enable the investors to redeem their Units prior to the implementation of the change.
- (f) There are a limited number of circumstances in which achieving the investment objective and policy of a Sub-Fund may be prohibited by the Regulations, may not be in the interests of investors or may require the use of strategies which are ancillary to those set out in the Sub-Fund's investment objective and policy. These circumstances include, but are not limited to the following:
 - (i) Each Sub-Fund is subject to the Regulations which include, inter alia, certain restrictions on the proportion of that Sub-Fund's value which may be held in individual securities. Depending on the concentration of the Index, a Sub-Fund may be restricted from investing to the full concentration level of the Index.
 - (ii) The constituent securities of the Index change from time to time including as a result of the Index being rebalanced. The Investment Manager may adopt a variety of strategies when trading a Fund to bring it in line with the changed Index which may incur costs for the relevant Sub-Fund. For example, (a) for equity Sub-Funds, where an equity security which forms part of the Index is not available or a market for such security does not exist, a Sub-Fund may instead hold custodian receipts relating to such securities; (b) for fixed income Sub-Funds, where a fixed income security which forms part of the Index is not available or a market for such security does not exist, the Sub-Fund may hold some fixed income securities which provide similar performance (with matching risk profile) even if such fixed income securities are not themselves constituents of the Index.
 - (iii) From time to time, equity and/or bonds or Sukuk securities in the Index may be subject to corporate actions. The Investment Manager has discretion to manage these events in the most efficient manner.
 - (iv) A Sub-Fund may hold ancillary liquid assets and will normally have dividend/income receivables.
 - (v) Equity and/or bonds or Sukuk securities held by a Sub-Fund and included in the Index may, from time to time, become illiquid or otherwise unobtainable at fair value. In these circumstances, the Investment Manager may use a number of techniques, including purchasing securities whose returns, individually or collectively, are seen to be well-correlated to desired constituents of the Index.
 - (vi) The Investment Manager will have regard to the costs of any proposed portfolio transaction. It may not necessarily be efficient to execute transactions which bring a Sub-Fund perfectly in line with the Index at all times.

11.2 Profile of a Typical Secondary Market Investor

Secondary Market investment in a Sub-Fund may be appropriate for investors who have a medium-term investment horizon. The Sub-Funds are designed for investors who are willing to accept moderate volatility, including the possibility of a decline in the value of their investment and/or who are not seeking to invest to meet short term goals.

- (d) The Index Provider shall provide on a monthly basis, a list of potential Sukuks eligible for inclusion in the Index to the Shariah Supervisory Committee for review and approval prior to their inclusion in the Index. In case any deviation is observed in the list of potential Sukuks eligible for inclusion in the Index from Shariah screening criteria perspective as set out in the J.P. Morgan Global IG Sukuk Index Methodology, the Shariah Supervisory Committee shall notify the Tenth Sub-Fund about such list of potential Sukuks for further review and re-classification of such list of potential Sukuks by the Index Provider.

The following are the primary features of the Index:

As described above, the Index will be called the J.P. Morgan Global IG Sukuk Index. Please refer to Schedule 4 for further details.

21.5 Classes of Units

The Tenth Sub-Fund comprise of one Class, details of which are set out in Schedule 1 . The Tenth Sub-Fund may add additional Classes from time to time at the discretion of the Management Company in accordance with the requirements of the Securities & Commodities Authority. A separate pool of assets will not be maintained for each Class within the Tenth Sub-Fund.

22 General rules of the sub-funds

22.1 There is no guarantee that any Sub-Fund will achieve its objective.

- (a) The Investment Manager does not currently intend to use financial derivative instruments. Prior to a Sub-Fund engaging in financial derivative instrument transactions a risk management process will be submitted to and cleared by the Securities & Commodities Authority in accordance with the Securities & Commodities Authority Regulations. Supplementary information relating to the risk management methods employed including the quantitative limits that are applied and any recent developments in the risk and yield characteristics of the main categories of investments shall be supplied to Authorised Participants upon request.
- (b) Within the Umbrella Fund, there are Shariah-compliant Sub-Funds and non-Shariah compliant Sub-Funds. Terms and conditions applicable to the non-Shariah compliant Sub-Funds will not be applicable to the Shariah compliant Sub-Funds unless mentioned explicitly.
- (c) Notwithstanding anything contained herein, the Investment Manager with respect to Shariah Sub-Funds only, shall be required to provide terms of such derivative transactions to the Shariah Supervisory Committee and take feedback from Shariah compliance perspective prior to entering into any Shariah compliant alternatives for financial derivative instruments for ascertaining Shariah compliance nature of such instruments.

23 Financings

A Sub-Fund may not obtain finance, except that a Sub-Fund may obtain finance up to 10% (ten percent) of its Net Asset Value, provided that such financing is on a temporary basis, i.e. a financing can be effectuated if it is a distributing sub-fund or a Class, until the dividends of the constituents in the index are collected or unless otherwise approved by the Securities & Commodities Authority. All such finance raised shall be through Shariah compliant sources and methods and is applicable to Shariah compliant Sub-Funds only.

24 Distribution policy

- 24.1 The Management Company shall have the authority to declare and pay dividends in respect of the Units of a dividend yielding Class of Units issued by a Sub-Fund of the Umbrella Fund out of the income of the relevant Class of Units of the Sub-Fund.
- 24.2 Distributions are to be payable in respect of the dividend yielding Class of Units.
- 24.3 Distributions in the capital growth Class of Units will be accumulated and reinvested for the account of such Class of Units.
- 24.4 Any change to this policy shall be set out in an updated version of the Prospectus and will be announced accordingly.
- 24.5 Distributions are paid to an investor's bank accounts in the Base Currency of the relevant Sub-Fund by telegraphic transfer to the account of the investor through the Paying Agent.

25 Investment restrictions

- 25.1 Any Sub-Funds' investments will be limited to investments permitted by the applicable Regulations. If the Regulations are altered during the life of the Umbrella Fund, the investment restrictions may be changed to take account of any such alterations but any such changes shall be in accordance with the Securities & Commodities Authority's requirements, reflected in an updated version of the Prospectus and will be subject to approval by the majority of votes of investors passed at a general meeting. Investors will be advised of such changes in the next succeeding annual or half-yearly report of the Umbrella Fund.
- 25.2 Further to above investment restrictions, the Shariah compliant Sub-Funds shall not invest in the instruments which are not compliant with the principles of Shariah including, among others, the following:
- (a) Preferred Stock (preference shares or securities with such features);
 - (b) Options;
 - (c) Conventional money market instruments;
 - (d) Futures; and
 - (e) Other conventional / interest bearing instruments
- 25.3 Investors and other parties to each Shariah compliant Sub-Fund recognize that the principle of the payment of interest is repugnant to Shariah and accordingly the Investment Manager shall ensure that no such obligation is imposed on or required for the Shariah compliant Sub-Fund(s).

26 Risk factors

Investors' attention is drawn to the following risk factors. This does not purport to be an exhaustive list of the risk factors relating to an investment in the Umbrella Fund and investors' attention is drawn to the description of the instruments set out in the section entitled Investment Objective and Policies.

26.1 Investment Risk

There can be no assurance that each Sub-Fund will achieve its investment objective. The value of Units and the income therefrom may rise or fall as the capital value of equity and/or bonds or Sukuk securities in which the Sub-Fund invests may fluctuate. The investment income of the Sub-Fund is based on the income earned on the equity and/or bonds or Sukuk securities it holds, less expenses incurred. Therefore, a Sub-Fund's investment income may be expected to fluctuate in response to changes in such income or expenses.

26.2 Index Risk

There is no assurance that each Index will continue to be calculated and published on the basis described in this Prospectus or that it will not be amended significantly. The past performance of the relevant Index is not a guide to future performance.

26.3 Non-Correlation Risk

- (a) A Sub-Fund's return may not match the return of the relevant Index for a number of reasons. For example, a Sub-Fund incurs operating expenses not applicable to the Index, and may incur costs in buying and selling securities, especially when rebalancing a Sub-Fund's portfolio holdings to reflect changes in the composition of the Index. In addition, a Sub-Fund's portfolio holdings will not exactly replicate the securities included in the relevant Index or the ratios between the securities included in the Index. A Sub-Fund may also hold uninvested assets in the form of cash. In addition, there may be timing differences between when the relevant Index reflects the declaration of dividends and when a Sub-Fund reflects the declaration of dividends. Certain securities comprising the Index may be unavailable for purchase.
- (b) The limits on the investments made by a Sub-Fund imposed by the Regulations may also mean that a Sub-Fund may not fully replicate the performance of the relevant Index if the concentration or type of investments in the Index contravenes those limits.

26.4 Replication Management Risk

A Sub-Fund is exposed to additional market risk due to its policy of investing principally in the equity and/or bonds or Sukuk securities included in the relevant Index. As a result of this policy, equity and/or bonds or Sukuk securities held by a Sub-Fund will generally not be bought or sold in response to market fluctuations and the equity and/or bonds or Sukuk securities may be issued by companies concentrated in a particular industry. Therefore, a Sub-Fund will generally not sell an equity and/or bonds or Sukuk security because its issuer is in financial trouble, unless that equity and/or bonds or Sukuk security is removed or is anticipated to be removed from the relevant Index.

26.5 Index Tracking Risk

Tracking error is the difference between the return of a Sub-Fund and the return of the Index tracked. The Sub-Fund is subject to tracking error risk, which is the risk that its returns may not track exactly those of the Index. Tracking error may result from an inability to hold the exact constituents of the Index, for example where there are local market trading restrictions, and/or where the Regulations limit exposure to the constituents of the Index.

26.6 Market Capitalisation Risk

A Sub-Fund normally invests a high proportion of its assets in equity securities that comprise the relevant Index. Where relevant, the equity securities of companies represented in an Index generally have market capitalisations that are consistent with the name of the Index. For purposes of determining the market capitalisation range of such equity securities, a Sub-Fund will use the current range of the Index. However, the relevant Sub-Fund will not be forced to sell an equity security because it has exceeded or fallen below the current market capitalisation range of the Index. Because of market movement, there can be no assurance that the equity securities in the Sub-Fund will stay within a given market capitalisation range. As a result, the relevant Sub-Fund may be exposed to additional risk.

26.7 Passive Investment Risk

A Sub-Fund may be affected by a general decline in certain market segments relating to its Index. A Sub-Fund invests in securities included in or representative of its Index regardless of their investment merit. A Sub-Fund generally will not attempt to take defensive positions in declining markets.

26.8 Fixed Income; Bonds and Sukuk Risks

Sub-Funds investing in bonds or other fixed income securities are subject to the following risks (when applicable):

- Interest rate risk - Bond prices could decline because of rising interest rates;
- Income risk - A Sub-Fund's income could decline because of falling interest rates;
- Credit risk - Sub-Funds investing in fixed income securities are subject to the risk that issuers may not make payments on such securities, or that negative perceptions of the issuer's ability to make such payments will cause the price of that bond to decline. An issuer suffering an adverse change in its financial condition could lower the credit quality of a security, leading to greater price volatility of the security. A lowering of the credit rating of a security may also offset the security's liquidity. Sub-Funds investing in lower quality debt securities are more susceptible to these problems and their value may be more volatile;
- Sukuk risk - The value of specific investments may decline due to developments in the trends of particular industries and/or the financial conditions of the credit parties underlying the Sukuk. These conditions may result in the Fund sustaining loss on certain investments, particularly if the Fund is required to liquidate investments during adverse markets conditions;
- Currency risk - A Sub-Fund's investments and, where applicable, the investments of any collective investment scheme in which a Sub-Fund invests, may be acquired in a wide range of currencies other than the Base Currency of the Sub-Fund. Changes in the exchange rate between the Base Currency of the Sub-Fund and the currency of the asset may lead to a depreciation of the value of the Sub-Fund's assets as expressed in the Base Currency. It may not be possible or practical to hedge against such exchange rate risk. The Investment Manager may, but is not obliged to, mitigate this risk by using financial instruments. A Sub-Fund may from time to time utilise techniques and instruments to seek to protect (hedge) currency exchange transactions either on a spot basis or by buying currency exchange forward contracts. Neither spot transactions nor forward currency exchange contracts eliminate fluctuations in the prices of a Sub-Fund's securities or in foreign exchange rates, or prevent loss if the prices of these securities should decline. A Sub-Fund may enter into currency exchange and other transactions and/or use techniques and instruments to seek to protect against fluctuation in the relative value of its portfolio positions as a result of changes in currency exchange rates or interest rates between the trade and settlement dates of specific securities transactions or anticipated securities transactions. Although these transactions are intended to minimise the risk of loss due to a decline in the value of hedged currency or interest rate, they also limit any potential gain that might be realised should the value of the hedged currency or interest rate increase. The precise matching of the relevant contract amounts and the value of the securities involved will not generally be possible because the future value of such securities will change as a consequence of market movements in the value of such securities between the date when the relevant contract is entered into and the date when it matures. The successful execution of a hedging strategy which matches exactly the profile of the investments of any Sub-Fund cannot be assured. It may not be possible to hedge against generally anticipated exchange or interest rate fluctuations at a price sufficient to protect the assets from the anticipated decline in value of the portfolio positions as a result of such fluctuations. Sub-Fund performance may be strongly influenced by movements in FX rates because currency positions held by the Sub-Fund may not always correspond with the securities positions held;

- Inflation/Deflation Risk - Inflation may decrease the value of payments at future dates. As inflation increases, the real value of the Sub-Fund's portfolio could decline. When inflation increases, it cannot be predicted when, if, or the degree to which it may decline. Inflation rates may change frequently and significantly as a result of various factors, including unexpected shifts in the domestic or global economy or changes in fiscal or monetary policies. Deflation may have an adverse effect on the creditworthiness of issuers and may make issuer default more likely, which may result in a decline in the value of the Sub-Fund's portfolio;
- Reinvestment Risk - It may not be possible to re-invest cash flows from fixed income securities (coupons, return of principal) at a yield comparable to the current rate of return of the overall Sub-Fund which holds such securities or of the individual security itself. This may reduce the potential return available to unitholder in a Sub-Fund;
- Liquidity Risk - A Sub-Fund may be adversely affected by a decrease in market liquidity for the securities in which it invests which may impair the Sub-Fund's ability to execute transactions. In such circumstances, some of the Sub-Fund's securities may become illiquid which may mean that the relevant Sub-Fund may experience difficulties in selling securities at a fair price within a timely manner. The Sub-Funds that invest in fixed income securities (such as Sukuk) may also be exposed to risks in the event of sudden asset price shocks. In case of low trading volume on bond / Sukuk markets, for example, any buy or sell trade on these markets may lead to significant market variations / fluctuations that may impact the portfolio valuation. In such circumstances, the Sub-Fund may be unable to unwind positions readily due to insufficient buyers or sellers.; and
- Downgrading and Lower Rated Securities Risk - Certain Sub-Funds may invest in below investment grade fixed income securities or bonds. Investment in fixed income securities or bonds are subject to the risk of an issuer's default or inability to repay the principal and interest. Where a rating agent downgrades a bond to sub-investment grade or below investment grade after the date such security was first purchased by a Sub-Fund, such Sub-Fund may continue to hold the downgraded security in order to avoid a distressed sale where not prohibited from doing so according to the terms of such Sub-Fund's investment policy. Below investment grade bonds are more likely to react to developments affecting market and credit risk than more highly rated bonds. Where the Sub-Funds hold sub-investment grade bonds, the risk of default on repayments increases, which can impact the capital value of such a Sub-Fund. Price changes in Sukuk are influenced predominantly in the same way as conventional fixed income securities by interest rate developments in the capital markets, which in turn are influenced by macro-economic factors. Sukuk could suffer when capital market interest rates rise, while they could increase in value when capital market interest rates fall. The price changes also depend on the term or residual time to maturity of the Sukuk. Furthermore, the sukuk market remains a nascent market which can create low levels of liquidity and increased transaction costs. Sukuk may be backed by sovereign or corporate issuers. In general, corporate issuers represent an increased credit risk to investors and may display greater price volatility. Sukuk issued by governments or government-related entities from countries referred to as emerging or frontier markets bear additional risks linked to the specifics of such countries (e.g. currency fluctuations, political and economic uncertainties, repatriation restrictions, etc).

26.9 Single Country Risk

Where a Sub-Fund invests primarily in securities in a single country or a small number of countries, it may be subject to a greater level of risk and above average volatility, as compared to investing in a broader range of securities covering multiple countries.

26.10 Trading Issues

Although it is contemplated that the Units of each Sub-Fund will be listed for trading on the Markets, there can be no assurance that an active trading market for such Units will develop or be maintained. Trading in Units on the Markets may be halted due to market conditions or for reasons that, in the view of the relevant Market, make trading in Units inadvisable. There can be no assurance that the requirements the Markets necessary to maintain any listing of the Sub-Funds will continue to be met or will remain unchanged.

26.11 Fluctuation of Net Asset Value

- (a) The Net Asset Value of each Sub-Fund will generally fluctuate with changes in the market value of such Sub-Fund's holdings. The market prices of Units will generally fluctuate in accordance with changes in Net Asset Value as well as the relative supply of and demand for Units on the Secondary Market. The Investment Manager cannot predict whether Units will trade below, at or above their Net Asset Value. Price differences may be due, in large part, to the fact that supply and demand forces at work in the Secondary Market for Units will be closely related to, but not identical to, the same forces influencing the prices of the stocks of the Sub-Fund trading individually or in the aggregate at any point in time.
- (b) However, given that Units can be purchased and redeemed in creation Units (unlike Units of closed-end Sub-Funds, which frequently trade at appreciable discounts from, and sometimes at premiums to, their Net Asset Value), the Investment Manager believes that large discounts or premiums to the Net Asset Value per Unit should not be sustained.

26.12 Secondary Market Trading Risk

The Units of each Sub-Fund will be listed and admitted to trading on one or more Markets. There is no guarantee as to the liquidity of the Units on any relevant Markets, or as to the provision of intra-day prices for the Units.

26.13 Lack of Operating History

When a Sub-Fund is newly formed and has no previous operating history when it is offered upon which investors can evaluate the likely performance of the newly formed Sub-Fund. There can be no assurance that the Sub-Fund will achieve its investment objective.

26.14 Equity Market Risk

Each Sub-Fund is subject to equity market risk. Equity risk is the risk that a particular Unit, a fund, an industry, or Units in general may fall in value. The value of investments in a Sub-Fund will go up and down with the prices of securities in which the Sub-Fund invests. The prices of equity securities change in response to many factors, including the historical and prospective earnings of the issuer, the value of its assets, management decisions, demand for an issuer's products or services, production costs, general economic conditions, interest rates, currency exchange rates, investor perceptions and market liquidity.

26.15 Volatility Risk

Prices of equity securities may be volatile. Price movements of equity securities are difficult to predict and are influenced by, among other things, speculation, changing supply and demand relationships, governmental trade, fiscal, monetary and exchange control programs and policies, national and international political and economic events, climate, changes in interest rates, and the inherent volatility of the market place. Volatility may also be due to the fluctuations in the exchange rate of currencies. During periods of uncertain market conditions, the combination of price volatility and the less liquid nature of securities markets may, in certain cases, affect a Sub-Fund's ability to acquire or dispose of equity securities at the price and time it wishes to do so, and consequently may have an adverse impact on the investment performance of the Sub-Fund.

26.16 Global Financial Market Crisis and Governmental Intervention

- (a) As at the date of this Prospectus, global financial markets have undergone pervasive and fundamental disruptions and significant instability which has led to governmental intervention. Regulators in certain jurisdictions have implemented or proposed a number of emergency regulatory measures. Government and regulatory interventions have sometimes been unclear in scope and application, resulting in confusion and uncertainty which in itself has been detrimental to the efficient functioning of financial markets. It is impossible to predict what additional interim or permanent governmental restrictions may be imposed on the markets and/or the effect of such restrictions on the Investment Manager's ability to implement a Sub-Fund's investment objective.
- (b) Whether current undertakings by governing bodies of various jurisdictions or any future undertakings will help stabilise the financial markets is unknown. The Investment Manager cannot predict how long the financial markets will continue to be affected by these events and cannot predict the effects of these – or similar events in the future – on a Sub-Fund, global economy and the global securities markets. The Investment Manager is monitoring the situation.

26.17 Temporary Suspension of Valuation of the Units and of Sales, Repurchases and Conversions

Investors are reminded that in certain circumstances their right to redeem or convert Units may be temporarily suspended.

26.18 Cyber Security Risk

Like other business enterprises, the use of the internet and other electronic media and technology exposes the Umbrella Fund, the Umbrella Fund's service providers, and their respective operations, to potential risks from cyber- security attacks or incidents (collectively, cyber-events). Cyber-events may include, for example, unauthorised access to systems, networks or devices (such as, for example, through "hacking" activity), infection from computer viruses or other malicious software code, and attacks which shut down, disable, slow or otherwise disrupt operations, business processes or website access or functionality. In addition to intentional cyber-events, unintentional cyber-events can occur, such as, for example, the inadvertent release of confidential information. Any cyber-event could adversely impact the Umbrella Fund and the investors and cause a Sub-Fund to incur financial loss and expense, as well as face exposure to regulatory penalties, reputational damage, and additional compliance costs associated with corrective measures. A cyber-event may cause the Umbrella Fund, a Sub-Fund, or the Umbrella Fund's service providers to lose proprietary information, suffer data corruption, lose operational capacity (such as, for example, the loss of the ability to process transactions, calculate the Net Asset Value of a Sub-Fund or allow Authorised Participants to transact business) and/or fail to comply with applicable privacy and other laws. Among other potentially harmful effects, cyber-events also may result in theft, unauthorised monitoring and failures in the physical infrastructure or operating systems that support the Umbrella Fund and the Umbrella Fund's service providers. In addition, cyber-events affecting issuers in which a Sub-Fund invests could cause the Sub-Fund's investments to lose value.

26.19 Umbrella structure of the Umbrella Fund and Cross-Liability Risk

A Sub-Fund will be responsible for paying its annual management fee regardless of the level of its profitability. The Umbrella Fund is an umbrella fund with segregated liability between Sub-Funds and under the applicable United Arab Emirates laws. The Umbrella Fund generally will not be liable as a whole to third parties, and there will not be any potential for cross liability between the Sub-Funds. Notwithstanding the foregoing, there can be no assurance that, should an action be brought against the Umbrella Fund in the courts of another jurisdiction, the segregated nature of the Sub-Funds would necessarily be upheld.

26.20 Taxation

Potential investors' attention is drawn to the taxation risks associated with investing in the Umbrella Fund. See section entitled Taxation.

26.21 Political Risks

The performance of a Sub-Fund may be affected by changes in economic and market conditions, uncertainties such as political developments, changes in government policies, the imposition of restrictions on the transfer of capital and in legal, regulatory and tax requirements.

26.22 Emerging Market Risks

- (a) Due to the developing nature of the countries in which certain Sub-Funds may invest their markets are similarly of a developing nature. Accordingly, these markets may be insufficiently liquid and levels of volatility in price movements may be greater than those experienced in more developed economies and markets. In addition, reporting standards and market practices may not provide the same degree of information as would generally apply internationally and therefore may increase risk. In addition, an issuer may default on payments and such circumstances could mean that investors may not receive back on repurchase or otherwise the amount originally invested.
- (b) It should be remembered that the legal infrastructure and accounting, auditing and reporting standards in emerging markets may not provide the same degree of investor protection or information to investors as would generally apply internationally. In particular, valuation of assets, depreciation, exchange differences, deferred taxation, contingent liabilities and consolidation may be treated differently from international accounting standards.
- (c) The value of the assets of each of the Sub-Funds referred to above may be affected by uncertainties, such as political developments, changes in government policies, taxation and currency repatriation and restrictions on foreign investment in some of the countries in which the Sub-Funds referred to above may invest.
- (d) Certain Sub-Funds may invest in markets where custodial and/or settlement systems are not fully developed in regions such as Africa, the Middle East, Central and Eastern Europe, Asia and Latin America, the assets of the Sub-Funds which are traded in such markets and which have been entrusted to sub-custodians, in circumstances where the use of such sub-custodians is necessary, may be exposed to risk in circumstances whereby the custodian will have no liability.

26.23 Kuwait Risk

Kuwaiti securities may be subject to losses due to restrictions on or a revocation of foreign investors' ability to invest in Kuwaiti securities. These include, among others, expropriation, nationalization, government intervention in international trade, controls on currency, and confiscatory taxation. Any such measures could be adopted by the Kuwaiti government without prior notice, which could in turn have an adverse impact on the liquidity and value of the securities that are subject to foreign ownership.

26.24 KSA Risk

The rate of legislative change in the KSA can be rapid and the content of proposed legislation when eventually adopted into law may be difficult to predict. It may not always be possible for existing laws and regulations to be applied consistently and new laws and regulations may be introduced which may impose new or additional requirements on the Umbrella Fund or a Sub-Fund's assets with which the Management Company and the Umbrella Fund may find difficult to comply. Laws and regulations in KSA can be amended with retroactive effect.

26.25 US Securities Law and Regulatory Considerations

Neither the Investment Manager nor any of its affiliates is currently registered with the US Securities and Exchange Commission or any state regulator as an investment adviser. Investors will not be afforded the protections of the 1940 Act or similar state laws. The Investment Manager believes that the Units in the Fund are not subject to the registration requirements of the 1933 Act, or any other applicable state securities laws. The Investment Manager also believes that the Fund is not subject to the 1940 Act. In order to assure that the Fund may continue to rely upon an exemption from registering as an investment company, appropriate representations and undertakings will be obtained from investors. Fund registration under the 1940 Act could materially adversely impair the Fund's investment performance and could significantly increase the Fund's regulatory and administrative burdens.

26.26 Turkey Risk

- (a) Turkish securities may be subject to losses as the Turkish economy has recently experienced currency risks, characterized by the devaluation of Turkish lira, significant balance of payment deficits, substantial budget deficits, high rates of inflation, strict foreign currency controls and a considerable level of unemployment. In addition to the instable economy, securities may also be subject to losses due to political risks and instable political developments.
- (b) Although the current economic and political conditions support Shariah compliant securities, it is uncertain whether the same conditions will remain the same after the next elections which is scheduled for 2023. Any negative changes in the political environment, including conflicts between senior politicians in Turkey and any failure of the Turkey Government to devise or implement required or appropriate economic programs may materially adversely affect the Turkish economy and, in turn, the performance of Turkish securities.
- (c) International investors generally consider Turkey to be an emerging market. Investing in the securities of issuers whose operations are primarily located in emerging markets, such as Turkey, involves a higher degree of risk than investing in the securities of issuers with operations that are primarily within the United States, European Union countries and similar jurisdictions. Additional risks and uncertainties relating to Turkey that do not currently exist or of which we are currently unaware may also become important factors which could have a material adverse effect on our results of operations and financial condition and an investment in the securities.

26.27 India Risk

- (a) India is a developing country and resultantly it exhibits greater market volatility from time to time in comparison to more developed markets. The Indian government exercises significant influence over many aspects of the economy. Future actions of the Indian government or the respective state governments in India could have a significant effect on the Indian economy, which could adversely affect market conditions, prices and the performance of investments in India. Political and economic activity, inflation, currency exchange rate fluctuations, industrial disruption, interest rate fluctuations, consumer confidence, less liquidity and smaller capitalization of securities markets than more developed markets, stock market prices, government involvement in and control over the economy, government decisions to discontinue support of economic reform programs and differences in accounting, auditing and financial reporting standards may have a material adverse effect on the Umbrella Fund's and the relevant Sub-Funds' return and/or financial position. India has land border disputes with its neighbouring countries which may cause uncertainty in the Indian market and may adversely affect the investments by the foreign portfolio investor ("FPI") in the Indian economy.
- (b) There are certain specific restrictions on investment or acquisition and transfer of equity instruments by Non-Resident Indians (NRIs) under the exchange control laws in India. Subject to such sectoral restrictions and limits, NRIs are permitted to invest in equity instruments and other securities of listed entities, units of domestic mutual funds, securities of public sector enterprise on either a repatriation or non-repatriation basis.

- (c) NRI Investors are subject to a number of risks related to tax matters, including renegotiation of tax treaties relevant to the Sub-Fund and its investors. In particular, the tax laws and its interpretation relevant to the Sub-Fund are subject to change, and tax liabilities could be incurred as a result of such changes.

- (d) India Legal Considerations

Investment by FPI is governed by the Foreign Exchange Management Act 1999, Security Exchange Board of India Foreign Portfolio Investments Regulations, 2019 ("FPI Regulations"), Foreign Exchange Management (Non-Debt Instruments) Rules, 2019 ("FEM NDI Rules") and Foreign Exchange Management (Debt Instruments) Regulations 2019 as updated, amended and expanded from time to time. The investments made by FPIs in equity and debt instruments are subject to contour decided by SEBI and RBI from time to time.

Purchase or sale of equity instruments by FPI

FPI may purchase or sell equity instruments¹ in an Indian company² which is listed or proposed to be listed³ subject to the limits in terms of investing in a single company and sectoral caps prescribed by the Regulators.⁴

The equity instruments in an Indian company may be bought by the FPI through private placement or public offer subject to the aforesaid specified limits.

Maximum limit of investment by Non-Resident Indian ("NRI")/ Overseas Citizen of India ("OCI")/Resident Indian ("RI")

The contributions by NRI/OCI/RI including those of NRI/OCI/RI controlled by the investment manager should be below 25% (twenty five percent) from a single NRI/OCI and in total should be below 50% (fifty percent) to the entire corpus of the FPI. The NRI/OCI/RI should not be in control⁵ of the FPI.

Other applicable laws

In furtherance to the laws mentioned above, kindly note that the FPI is not exempt from the application of the Prevention of Money Laundering Act, 2002, the SEBI (Substantial Acquisition of Shares and Takeovers) Regulations, 2022, SEBI (Prohibition of Insider Trading) Regulations, 2015, SEBI (Issue of Capital and Disclosure Requirements) Regulations, 2009 and certain sections of these regulations could be applicable in some cases.

India Tax Considerations

The following discussion summarizes certain Indian tax considerations which are generally applicable to persons considering the acquisition of an interest in the Fund. The discussion

² Indian company would mean any company which is incorporated under the laws of India.

³ To be listed companies shall include such companies which will be listed within 30 days of the investment.

⁴ Sectoral Caps are dynamic in nature as the limits are often amended from time to time.

⁵ Regulation 2(1)(f) of FPI Regulations states that "'control' includes the right to appoint majority of the directors or to control the management or policy decisions exercisable by a person or persons acting individually or in concert, directly or indirectly, including by virtue of shareholding or management rights or shareholders agreements or voting agreements or in any other manner." does not deal with all kinds of tax considerations that may be relevant to specific investors or classes of investors in light of their unique circumstances. In particular, the discussion does not address any considerations applicable to persons that acquire interests in connection with the performance of services.

General

Subject to the indirect transfer provisions as mentioned below, no investor will be subject to taxation in India unless such investor is a resident of India or being a non-resident, has an Indian source income or income received, accrued or arisen or deemed to be received, accrued or arisen to him in India.

The Income Tax Act, 1961 of India (the "ITA") provides that a company shall be a tax resident in India in a given financial year if: (i) it is incorporated in India; or (ii) its place of effective management ("POEM") in that year is in India. POEM is defined to mean a place where key management and commercial decisions that are necessary for the conduct of the business of an entity as a whole are, in substance made. In case a foreign company is treated to have its POEM in India, such foreign company shall be treated as a tax resident of India in which case its worldwide income could be taxed in India and the benefits of any tax treaty entered into between the jurisdiction of its residence and India, may be denied. It is important to obtain a Permanent Account Number ("PAN") as FPIs are identified by their PAN and it is required to open bank account in India for investments across Indian capital market.

Taxation under the ITA

The taxation of the income and return on investments of the FPI, is governed by the provisions of the ITA. The FPI is expected to have income in the form of capital gains, income from dividends and income from interest. Under the provisions of the ITA, the tax consequences for the FPI if the benefits of the tax treaty are not available to the FPI, would be as follows:

Capital Gains

Under the ITA, income earned by FPIs from transfer of securities are characterised as 'capital gains'. Long-term capital gains in excess of INR 100,000 (Indian Rupees hundred thousand) gains on sale of equity shares in a company executed on a recognized stock exchange in India or units of an equity oriented fund held for a period of more than 12 (twelve) months will be taxed at the rate of 10% (ten percent) plus applicable surcharge and cess provided Securities Transaction Tax ("STT") has been paid on acquisition as well as disposal, subject to certain exceptions.

Any benefit of indexation (i.e. any adjustment for inflation) or foreign currency fluctuation, however, would not be accounted for. Short-term capital gains being realized and unrealized gains on sale of listed equity shares of a company executed on a recognized stock exchange in India or units of an equity oriented fund held for a period of 12 (twelve) months or less will be taxed at the rate of 15% (fifteen percent) plus applicable surcharge and cess provided STT has been paid on the same. Capital gains accruing to a non-resident on sale of listed equity shares not executed on a recognized stock exchange in India and other Indian listed securities would be taxed at the rate of 10% (ten percent) plus applicable surcharge and cess for long-term gains and at 30% (thirty percent) plus applicable surcharge and cess in case of short-term gains for FPIs.

Short-term capital gains accruing to a FPI from the sale of unlisted securities will be taxed at the rate of 30% (thirty percent) plus applicable surcharge and cess and long-term gains accruing to a FPI will be taxed at the rate of 10% (ten percent) plus applicable surcharge and cess;

The period of holding for determining classification of long term capital assets and short term capital assets varies depending upon the type of securities. For certain listed securities, listed shares and zero-coupon bonds, to be treated as long term capital assets, the period of holding should exceed 12 (twelve) months. For other securities, including units of non-equity oriented mutual funds, but excluding unlisted equity shares, to be treated as long term capital assets, the period of holding should exceed 36 (thirty-six) months. Provided that in case of a share of a company not being a share listed on a recognised stock exchange in India, such shares would be treated as long term capital assets where they are held for a period of more than 24 (twenty four) months.

Dividends

Any dividend declared or distributed on or after 1 April 2020 would be taxed in the hands of non-resident shareholders at 20% (twenty percent) plus surcharge and cess subject to benefits under the tax treaty, if any.

Interest Income

Interest income accruing to a FPI from debt securities held in India will be taxed at the rate of 20% (twenty percent) plus applicable surcharge and cess. Additionally, as per amendments made in the ITA, interest income earned by FPIs from rupee denominated bonds (where the rate of interest does not exceed 500 (five hundred) basis points over the applicable base rate of the State Bank of India) of an Indian company or a Government Security (as defined in Section 2(b) of the Indian Securities Contracts (Regulation) Act, 1956) on or after 1 June 2013 and before 1 July 2023 would be taxed at the rate of 5% (five percent) plus applicable surcharge and cess.

Indirect Transfer Provision

The ITA levies capital gains tax on income arising from the transfer of shares/ interest in a company/ entity organized outside India which derives, directly or indirectly, its value substantially from the assets (tangible or intangible) located in India. The transferor in this case is required to withhold taxes and pay the same to the Government of India. Pursuant to the said provision, there is a possibility that Indian tax authorities may seek to tax the transfer or redemption of shares in an FPI, notwithstanding that there is no transfer taking place in India, on the basis that the shares of the FPI derive substantial value from India. However, amendments to the ITA has clarified that the scope of the indirect transfer tax provisions as set out above shall not cover within its ambit, direct or indirect investments held by non-resident investors in FPIs that are registered as Category-I.

General Anti Avoidance Rule ("GAAR")

The GAAR provisions of the ITA, came into effect on 1 April 2017 and shall not apply to transactions entered into before 1 April 2017. As per the GAAR provisions of the ITA, Indian tax authorities have been granted wide powers to tax 'impermissible avoidance arrangements' including the power to disregard entities in a structure, reallocate income and expenditure between parties to the arrangement, alter the tax residence of such entities and the legal situs of assets involved, treat debt as equity and vice versa.

The GAAR provisions are potentially applicable to any transaction or any part thereof. The term 'impermissible avoidance arrangement' has been defined to mean an arrangement where the main purpose is to obtain a tax benefit, and it inter alia, lacks commercial substance or is deemed to lack commercial substance, in whole or in part or is entered into, or carried out, by means, or in a manner, which are not ordinarily employed for bona fide purposes.

If the Indian tax authorities were to apply GAAR to the FPI, this could result in the benefits under the India-UAE tax treaty being denied to the FPI. Consequently, the application of GAAR could have an adverse impact on the taxability of the FPI and the returns to the investors.

India-UAE Tax Treaty

India has entered into various bilateral tax treaties with offshore countries and jurisdictions for avoidance of double taxation, including with UAE. A taxpayer may be taxed either under domestic law provisions (i.e. under the ITA) or the applicable tax treaty to the extent it is more beneficial. A non-resident claiming treaty relief would be required to file tax returns and furnish a tax residency certificate issued by the tax authority in its home country.

India is also a signatory to the Multilateral Convention to Implement Tax Treaty Related Measures to Prevent Base Erosion and Profit Shifting ("MLI"), in furtherance of the OECD's Base Erosion and Profit Shifting ("BEPS") project. The synthesized India-UAE treaty text provides that a treaty benefit may be denied in respect of an item of income if it is reasonable to conclude that obtaining the benefit was one of the principal purposes of an arrangement or a transaction that resulted directly or indirectly in that benefit.

Subject to the above, under the India-UAE tax treaty capital gains arising to a resident of UAE from transfer of shares of an Indian company are taxable in India. However, subject to availability of treaty benefits, capital gains arising from instruments and securities other than shares of an Indian company, immovable property or movable property forming part of the business property of a permanent establishment or fixed base in India, gains from the alienation of shares of the capital stock of a company the property of which consists directly or indirectly principally of immovable property situated in a India, should not be subject to tax in India.

Further, the India-UAE tax treaty also provides for a beneficial rate of tax of 12.5% (twelve and a half percent) in respect of interest income arising in India for eligible tax residents of UAE provided such UAE resident is the beneficial owner of such interest. Further, the treaty also provides for a beneficial rate of 10% (ten percent) in respect of dividend received by a UAE resident from Indian companies subject to treaty eligibility conditions and subject to the resident being beneficial owner of such dividends, except where the UAE resident has a permanent establishment or a fixed base in India.

The tax consequences of an investment in the Sub-Fund are complex, and the full tax impact of an investment in the Sub-Fund will depend on facts and circumstances of each case. Further, Indian domestic tax laws along with the rules and regulations made thereunder and the judicial and administrative interpretations thereof, are subject to change or modification by subsequent legislative, regulatory, administrative, or judicial decisions. Any such changes, which could also be retroactive, can have a material adverse effect.

26.28 The People's Republic of China Risk

- (a) Some Sub-Funds' investments may include H Shares. They are shares of enterprises having substantial business exposure to growth opportunities in China. However, investors should be aware that the economy of China differs from the economies of most developed countries in many respects, including with respect to government involvement in its economy, level of development, growth rate and control of foreign exchange. The regulatory and legal framework for capital markets and companies in China is not well developed when compared with those of developed countries.
- (b) Where a Sub-Fund invests in H Shares, the Sub-Fund is subject to the risks of investing in emerging markets generally and the risks specific to the Chinese market in particular, which are not typically associated with investing in those of developed countries. General risks of investing in emerging markets include but are not limited to, may affect the ability of such Sub-Fund to fully implement or pursue the investment objective and strategy of such Sub-Fund:
 - (i) social, political and economic instability and unfavourable diplomatic developments;
 - (ii) more substantial government involvement in the economy;
 - (iii) imposition of additional governmental restrictions like expropriation of assets or confiscatory taxes;

- (iv) greater price volatility;
 - (v) difficulties in enforcing contractual obligations; and
 - (vi) risk of nationalisation.
- (c) The investors should be aware that, although the economy of the PRC has experienced significant growth in the past few years, such growth has been uneven both geographically and among the various sectors of the economy. Moreover, there can be no assurance that such growth can be sustained. Investments associated with the PRC will be sensitive to any significant change in political, social or economic policy in the PRC. Such sensitivity may adversely affect the capital growth and thus the performance of the Sub-Funds' investments.
- (d) Accounting, auditing, financial reporting and disclosure standards and practices applicable to companies in the PRC may be different to those standards and practices applicable to countries that have more developed financial markets. These differences may lie in areas such as different valuation methods of the properties and assets, and the requirements for disclosure of information to the investors.
- (e) The legal system of the PRC is based on written laws and regulations. However, many of these laws and regulations are still untested and the enforceability of such laws and regulations remains unclear. The PRC is still developing the legal framework required to support a market economy. The legal system of the PRC in general and for securities markets in particular have been undergoing a period of rapid change over recent years which may lead to difficulties in interpreting and applying newly evolving regulations.
- (f) The PRC government implements a controlled floating exchange rate system based on the supply and demand in the market and adjusted with reference to a portfolio of currencies, i.e. US dollar, Euro, Yen, pound sterling and Hong Kong dollar. The exchange rate of RMB against the above-mentioned currencies fluctuates within a range above or below a central parity rate. As the exchange rates are based primarily on market forces, the exchange rates for RMB against other currencies are susceptible to movements based on external factors. There can be no assurance that such exchange rates will not fluctuate widely against foreign currencies in the future.

26.29 Hong Kong SAR Risk

In Hong Kong SAR, social and political factors, the COVID-19 pandemic and related government measures such as the border controls imposed since 2020, as well as the resurgence of COVID-19 infections in 2022, have led to a significant decline in the number of visitors traveling to Hong Kong SAR, which has had a dampening effect on business and consumer sentiment. Future political or social developments in Hong Kong SAR may affect Hong Kong SAR's economic growth and the financial conditions in which Hong Kong SAR businesses and markets operate. Economic growth and stability in Hong Kong SAR may also be impacted by geopolitical developments and tensions, including trade disputes.

Hong Kong-listed issuers will be subject to reporting obligations in respect of securities listed on the Hong Kong Stock Exchange. The disclosure standards imposed by the Hong Kong Stock Exchange may be different than those imposed by securities exchanges in other countries or regions. As a result, the level of information that is available may not correspond with what holders of securities may be accustomed to.

26.30 Counterparty Risk to the Custodian

The Umbrella Fund will be exposed to the credit risk of the custodian or any Sub-custodian used by the custodian where cash is held by the custodian or other custodians. In the event of the insolvency of the custodian or other custodians, the Umbrella Fund will be treated as a general creditor of the custodian or other custodians in relation to cash holdings of the Umbrella Fund. The Umbrella Fund's equity securities are however maintained by the custodian or other custodians in segregated accounts and should be protected in the event of insolvency of the custodian or other custodians.

26.31 Risk Associated with Shariah Compliance

The Shariah compliant Sub-Funds are guided and supervised by the Shariah Advisor and the Shariah Supervisory Committee in terms of Shariah compliance. An Investor including Authorised Participants may note that there may be more than one interpretation of the Shariah principles and Shariah compliance of the Sub-Fund is as per the opinion of the Shariah Advisor or the Shariah Supervisory Committee of the Sub-Fund. Each Investor shall conduct its own due diligence without sole reliance on the Shariah Advisor or Shariah Supervisory Committee.

27 Applications for subscriptions and redemptions

27.1 Procedure for Subscriptions and Redemptions (Primary Market)

- (a) Subscription and redemption in the primary market means all subscription and redemption activities carried out through the Authorized Participants directly with the Sub-Fund. The subscription and redemption in the primary market is limited to those Authorized Participants concerned with each Sub-Fund.
- (b) All applicants applying for the first time to create or redeem Units in any Sub-Fund in the Umbrella Fund must first complete the Umbrella Fund's Authorised Participant Agreement which may be obtained from the Umbrella Fund (contact information may be found on the Umbrella Fund's website www.chimerainvestment.com). A holiday timetable for the Markets will also be available on the Umbrella Fund's website. An original signed application form should be sent to the Administrator with supporting documentation in relation to money laundering prevention checks. No Units shall be issued or cancelled until the applicant has completed and delivered to the Administrator the original application form and supporting anti-money laundering documentation as described above. The Umbrella Fund has absolute discretion to accept or reject any Authorised Participant Agreement.
- (c) Measures aimed at the prevention of money laundering will require an applicant to provide verification of identity to the Umbrella Fund and/or the Administrator. The Umbrella Fund and/or the Administrator will specify what proof of identity is required, including but not limited to any form of identification or address proof of all its directors and beneficial owners. This may further require production of a certified copy of the certificate of incorporation (and any change of name), by-laws, instrument of incorporation (or equivalent), and the names and addresses of all directors and beneficial owners.
- (d) The Administrator reserves the right to request further details or evidence of identity from an applicant for Units. Applicant must provide such declarations as are reasonably required by the Umbrella Fund, including, without limitation, declarations as to matters of US taxation. In this regard, applicant should take into account the considerations set out in the section entitled Taxation.
- (e) Once the Authorised Participant Agreement and supporting anti-money laundering documentation has been processed by the Administrator and accepted by, or on behalf of, the Umbrella Fund, an applicant may submit a dealing request to subscribe or redeem Units in a Sub-Fund by an electronic order entry facility or by submitting a dealing form via facsimile to the Administrator. Dealing forms may be obtained from the Administrator. The use of the electronic order entry facility is subject to the prior consent of the Investment Manager or the Administrator and must be in accordance with and comply with the requirements of the Securities & Commodities Authority. Subscription and redemption orders are subject to the Trade Cut-Off Time.
- (f) Deal instructions received after the Trade Cut-Off Time may be accepted for that Dealing Day, at the discretion of the Management Company or their delegate, in exceptional circumstances, provided they are received prior to the Valuation Point.

- (g) All applications are at the applicant's own risk. Dealing forms and dealing requests, once submitted, shall be irrevocable save with the consent of the Management Company or their delegate. The Umbrella Fund and the Administrator shall not be responsible for any losses arising in the transmission of Authorised Participant Agreements and dealing forms or for any losses arising in the transmission of any dealing request outside the agreed timings and methods of communication.
- (h) The Investment Manager of the Sub-Fund has absolute discretion to accept or reject in whole or in part any subscription for Units with an appropriate reason to the Authorised Participant. The Investment Manager also has the right to determine whether it will only accept a redemption request from an Authorised Participant in kind or in cash.
- (i) At the discretion of the Investment Manager of the Sub-Fund and with the consent of the Authorised Participant making such redemption request, assets may be transferred to the Authorised Participant in satisfaction of the redemption monies payable on the redemption of Units.
- (j) Where a redemption request represents 5% or more of the Net Asset Value of a Sub-Fund, in case of a physical in-kind redemption, assets may be transferred to an Authorised Participant in satisfaction of the redemption monies payable without the consent of the Authorised Participant. At the request of the Authorised Participant making such redemption request, the assets may be sold by the Investment Manager of the Sub-Fund and the proceeds of sale shall be transmitted to the Authorised Participant. The transaction costs incurred in the sale of the assets will be payable by the Authorised Participant.
- (k) The Administrator and/or the Umbrella Fund reserves the right to request further details from an applicant (being an Authorised Participant) for Units. Each such Authorised Participant must notify the Administrator of any change in their details and furnish the Umbrella Fund with whatever additional documents relating to such change as it may request. Amendments to an Authorised Participant's registration details and payment instructions will only be effected upon receipt by the Administrator of original documentation signed by the authorised signatories on the account. Redemption requests will be processed only where the payment is to be made to the applicant's account of record.
- (l) It is further acknowledged that the Umbrella Fund, the Investment Manager and the Administrator shall be held harmless by the applicant against any loss arising as a result of a failure to process the subscription if information that has been requested by the Umbrella Fund or the Administrator has not been provided by the applicant.
- (m) The Umbrella Fund may accept subscriptions and pay redemptions either in kind or in cash.
- (n) Subscription and redemption orders from Authorised Participants will normally be accepted in multiples of the minimum Creation Units listed for the Sub-Funds. Such minimums may be reduced in any case at the discretion of the Management Company or their delegate.

27.2 Portfolio Composition File

- (a) A Sub-Fund will publish the Portfolio Composition File for the Sub-Funds setting out the Investments and/or the anticipated Cash Component to be delivered (a) by Authorised Participants in the case of subscriptions in the Primary Market; or (b) by the Sub-Fund in the case of redemptions, in return for Creation Units of the relevant Sub-Funds. The Sub-Fund's current intention is that the Portfolio Composition File will normally stipulate that Investments must be in the form of the constituents of the relevant Index. Only Investments which form part of the investment objective and policy of a Sub-Fund will be included in the Portfolio Composition File. The weightings and holdings of the Portfolio Composition File may differ from time to time. The Investment Manager of the Sub-Fund receives the calculation of this data from third parties.
- (b) The Portfolio Composition File for a Sub-Fund for each Dealing Day will be available upon request from the Administrator.

27.3 Dealings

- (a) Units may be subscribed only through Authorised Participants mentioned in this Prospectus on each Dealing Day at the Net Asset Value per Unit plus Duties and Charges. Units may be redeemed on each Dealing Day at the Net Asset Value per Unit less Duties and Charges. Duties and Charges may include trading and transaction costs, and variance in Net Asset Value related to the completion or the sale of a portfolio of the Investments needed to create or redeem a Creation Unit. Duties and Charges, as more particularly described in the section entitled, Definitions applicable to cash and partial- cash transactions may, following completion of the transaction, result in a negative balance to be charged to, and required to be paid by, the relevant Authorised Participant. Conversely, any positive balance resulting from the aggregate Duties and Charges arising in connection with a completed cash or partial-cash transaction shall be refunded to the Authorised Participant by the relevant Sub-Fund.
- (b) The Fund will also charge and collect fees from the Authorised Participants with a maximum of up to 5% of the Net Asset Value, and these fees will be due upon any cash in lieu creations/redemptions.
- (c) The Trade Cut-Off Time and the Settlement Time for all subscriptions and redemptions, are set out in the table below.

27.5 Procedure for Subscriptions and Redemptions (Secondary Market)

- (a) Units may be purchased or sold on the Secondary Market by all investors through relevant Markets on which the Units are admitted for trading.
- (b) It is expected that the Units of the Sub-Funds will be listed on the Markets (being the Dubai Financial Market and the Abu Dhabi Securities Exchange). The purpose of the listing of the Units on the Market is to enable investors to buy and sell Units on the Secondary Market, normally via the investor's broker, in smaller quantities than would be possible if they were to subscribe and/or redeem Units through the Umbrella Fund in the Primary Market. In accordance with the requirements of the relevant Markets, liquidity providers (which may or may not be an Authorised Participant) are expected to provide liquidity and the regulation bid and offer spread based on the Indicative Net Asset Value and liquidity provider's contractual agreement with the relevant Markets and also to facilitate the Secondary Market trading of the Units.

- (c) The maximum margin between the bid and offer prices is 6% divided equally by 3% above and 3% below the Indicative Net Asset Value (INAV). The relevant Markets will determine the margin according to which the Authorised Participants will work from time to time when determining the bid and offer prices at the time of placing the orders in the relevant Markets, provided that this margin does not exceed at all times the 6% specified in this Prospectus as a maximum (+/- 3%) of the INAV.
- (d) For example, if the Indicative Net Asset Value (INAV) at a certain date is AED 100, and the relevant Market has set the maximum margin between the bid and offer prices at 4%. It is then divided equally by 2% above and 2% below the INAV and is to be abided by all the Authorised Participants, when determining the bid and offer prices, that the bid price is not less than AED 98, and the offer price does not exceed AED 102, with the possibility of setting any prices between these two prices.
- (e) If the Indicative Net Asset Value (INAV) at a certain date is AED 100, and the relevant Market has set the maximum margin between the bid and offer prices at 5%. It is divided equally by 2.5% above and 2.5% below the INAV and is to be abided by all the Authorised Participants, when determining the bid and offer prices, that the bid price is not less than AED 97.5, and the offer price does not exceed AED 102.5, with the possibility of setting any prices between these two prices.
- (f) Units of the Sub-Funds purchased on the Secondary Market cannot usually be sold directly back to the Umbrella Fund. Investors must buy and sell Units on a Secondary Market with the assistance of an intermediary (e.g. a broker) and may incur fees for doing so. In addition, investors may pay more than the current Net Asset Value when buying Units and may receive less than the current Net Asset Value when selling them.
- (g) The market price of a Unit listed or traded on a Market may not reflect the Net Asset Value per Unit of a Sub-Fund. The price of any Units traded on the Secondary Market will be determined by the market and prevailing economic conditions which may affect the value of the underlying assets. Any transactions in the Units of a Sub-Fund on a Market will be subject to the customary brokerage commissions and/or transfer taxes or any other taxes associated with the trading and settlement through the relevant Market. There can be no guarantee that once the Units are listed on a Market they will remain listed. Investors wishing to purchase or redeem Units on the Secondary Market should contact their broker.
- (h) Investors may redeem their Units through an Authorised Participant by selling its Units to the Authorised Participant (directly or through a broker) through the relevant market.
- (i) If the Market value of the Units of a Sub-Fund significantly varies from its Net Asset Value, investors who have acquired their Units (or, where applicable, any right to acquire a Unit that was granted by way of distributing a respective Unit) on the Secondary Market shall be allowed to sell them directly back to the Umbrella Fund. For example, this may apply in cases of market disruption such as the absence of a liquidity provider. In such situations, information shall be communicated to the regulated market indicating that the Umbrella Fund is open for direct redemptions at the level of the Umbrella Fund. Investors should then contact the Administrator regarding the process to be followed to redeem their Units in these circumstances. Units may be redeemed at the Net Asset Value per Unit less Duties and Charges.
- (j) The Index Providers will publish a breakdown of the sectors of each Index on their respective websites at <https://www.spglobal.com/spdji>, <https://www.ftserussell.com>, <https://www.jpmmorganmarkets.com> and the investment manager will provide a breakdown of the constituents of each index on its website www.chimerainvestment.com.

- (k) The Secondary Market dealing timetable depends upon the rules of the Market upon which the Units are dealt. Please contact your professional adviser or broker for details of the relevant dealing timetable.

27.6 General Information

- (a) No Unit certificates will be issued. Fractional Units will not be issued.
- (b) The Management Company, as the case may be, is required to maintain a register of Authorised Participants to the extent that such register may be required by the Securities & Commodities Authority. The Management Company have resolved that Units in the Sub-Funds will be issued in dematerialised (or uncertificated) form and that the Sub-Funds will apply for admission for clearing and settlement through the Dubai Financial Market and Abu Dhabi Securities Exchange clearing, settlement and Custodian systems. Each clearing system provides settlement assurance by being counterparty to all matched trades executed on the relevant Market and reported immediately to the relevant clearing system. The clearing system assumes the role of a seller to the buying clearing member and the role of a buyer to the selling clearing member. Fridays and Saturdays are both non-trade and non-settlement days in addition to official local holidays in the UAE.
- (c) The Management Company reserve the right to issue amended or additional procedures relating to the manner of creating or redeeming Creation Units, which will be notified to Authorised Participants in advance and would require Securities and Commodity Authorities approval to reflect any changes in the Prospectus.
- (d) Applications received after the Trade Cut-Off Time will generally not be accepted. However, such applications may be accepted for dealing on the relevant Dealing Day, at the discretion of Management Company or their delegate, in exceptional circumstances, provided they are received prior to the Valuation Point. Subscription proceeds should be paid in the Base Currency of the relevant Sub-Fund within the Settlement Time specified. For redemptions in cash, redemption proceeds shall be paid within the Settlement Time, provided that the Units have been transferred into the Umbrella Fund's account at a clearing system. For in kind dealings, settlement of the transfer of Investments and/or the Cash Component in respect of subscriptions and redemptions must take place within the Settlement Time specified. The Umbrella Fund reserves the right, in their sole discretion, to require the applicant to indemnify the Umbrella Fund against any losses arising as a result of a Sub-Fund's failure to receive Investments and/or the Cash Component within stated settlement times.
- (e) For in kind redemptions, no delivery instructions will be issued by the Administrator in relation to the Investments and/or Cash Component until the Administrator has confirmed receipt of the returned Units in the relevant Sub-Fund into the Umbrella Fund's account at a clearing system.
- (f) If redemption requests on any Dealing Day represent 10% of the Net Asset Value or more of the Units in issue in respect of any Sub-Fund, the Management Company may, in their discretion, refuse to redeem any Units in excess of 10% of Net Asset Value. Any request for redemption on such Dealing Day shall be reduced rateably and the redemption requests shall be treated as if they were received on each subsequent Dealing Day until all Units to which the original request related have been redeemed. In any event settlement for redemptions will be made within ten Business Days of the day on which the redemption request is made. Redemption proceeds shall be paid in the Base Currency of the relevant Sub-Fund.

27.7 Redemption Dividend

The Sub-Fund may pay any accrued dividends related to a cash redemption or related to the Investments transferred to an Authorised Participant in satisfaction of a valid in-kind redemption request. Such a dividend will become due immediately prior to the redemption of the Units and paid to the Authorised Participant as part of the cash amount in the case of a cash redemption or as part of the Cash Component in the case of an in-kind redemption.

27.8 Failure to Deliver

- (a) In the event an Authorised Participant fails to deliver the required Investment and Cash Component in relation to an in-kind subscription or cleared Sub-Funds in relation to a cash subscription in the stated settlement times for the Sub-Funds, the Management Company reserves the right, in exceptional circumstances, to cancel the relevant subscription order. In such circumstances, the Authorised Participant shall bear all administrative expenses incurred by the Sub-Fund till that date. The Authorised Participant undertakes to pay the actual damages to the Sub-Fund as a result of a failure by the Authorised Participant to deliver the required Investments and Cash Component or cleared Sub-Funds in a timely fashion. The Management Company reserves the right to cancel the provisional allotment of the relevant Units in those circumstances.
- (b) The Management Company may, in their sole discretion that it is in the best interests of a Sub-Fund, decide not to cancel a subscription and provisional allotment of Units where an Authorised Participant has failed to deliver the required Investment and Cash Component or cash within the stated settlement times. In this event, the Umbrella Fund may temporarily raise finance, subject to the requirements of the Securities & Commodities Authority, an amount equal to the subscription and invest the amount raised through financing in accordance with the investment objective and policies of the relevant Sub-Fund. Once the required Investments and Cash Component or cash has been received, the Umbrella Fund will use this to make the finance payments. The Management Company reserves the right to charge the relevant Authorised Participant for any profit or other costs incurred by the Umbrella Fund as a result of this financing. If the Authorised Participant fails to reimburse the Umbrella Fund for those charges, the Umbrella Fund and/or Investment Manager will have the right to sell all or part of the applicant's holdings of Units in the Sub-Fund or any other Sub-Fund of the Umbrella Fund in order to meet those charges. For the Shariah compliant Sub-Funds, all such finance shall be raised through Shariah compliant sources and methods.

27.9 Mandatory Repurchase of Units and Forfeiture of Dividends

Prospective Investors should consult their professional advisers regarding the tax implications for them of holding, possessing, and transferring title to Units under the tax regimes applicable to such Investors.

32 FATCA

- 32.1 The FATCA arrangements between the US and the United Arab Emirates require in certain circumstances reporting to the UAE Authorities of US person's direct and indirect ownership of non-US accounts and non-US entities. Failure to provide the requested information may lead to a 30% withholding tax applying to certain US source income (including dividends and interest) and gross proceeds from the sale or other disposal of property that can produce US source interest or dividends.
- 32.2 In order to comply with FATCA, the Umbrella Fund through the Investment Manager or as the Management Company may otherwise deem appropriate may require prospective Authorised Participants to provide documentary evidence of their tax residence and all other information deemed necessary to comply with the above-mentioned requirement.

 - (a) withhold any taxes or similar charges that it is legally required to withhold, whether by law or otherwise, in respect of any Investor;
 - (b) require any Investor to promptly furnish such personal data as may be required by the Management Company or Investment Manager in its discretion in order to comply with any law and/or to promptly determine the amount of withholding to be retained;
 - (c) divulge any such personal information to any UAE tax or regulatory authority, as may be required by law or such authority; or

- (d) withhold the payment of any dividend or redemption proceeds to an Authorised Participant until the Management Company holds sufficient information to enable it to determine the correct amount to be withheld.

32.4 Although the Management Company will attempt to satisfy any obligations imposed on it to avoid the imposition of the 30% withholding tax, if the Fund becomes subject to a withholding tax as a result of FATCA, the value of Units held by all Investors may be materially affected.

32.5 Common Reporting Standards

The Management Company may process, store, transfer and disclose, without the need for further consent or approval from the Authorised Participant, information about the Authorised Participant in its possession pursuant to requirements under the Organisation of Economic Co-operation and Development (OECD)'s Common Reporting Standards (CRS) or any other intergovernmental agreement between the UAE and any other country in relation to the implementation of CRS, any similar, existing or future regime intended to secure the exchange of information for purposes connected to taxation, or any similar legislation or regulations in force in any other jurisdiction from time to time or any intergovernmental or other agreements made and laws and/or regulations (local or otherwise) adopted pursuant to the implementation of the foregoing.

- (c) The Investment Manager and its affiliates shall not be under any obligation to offer investment opportunities of which any of them becomes aware to the Sub-Fund or to account to the Sub-Funds in respect of any such transaction or any benefit received by any of them from any such transaction, but will allocate any such opportunities on an equitable basis between the Sub-Funds and other clients, taking into consideration the investment objectives, investment limitations, capital available for investment and diversification posture of the Sub-Fund and other clients. The Investment Manager may hold Units in any Sub-Fund. It is, therefore, possible that any of them may, in the course of business, have potential conflicts of interests with the Sub-Fund and the clients. - (f) The Investment Manager may be responsible for valuing certain securities held by any Sub-Funds. The Investment Manager is paid a fee which is a percentage of the Net Asset Value of each Sub-Fund. Consequently, a conflict of interest could arise between its interests and those of any Sub-Fund. In the event of such a conflict of interests, the Investment Manager shall have regard to its obligations to the Umbrella Fund and any Sub-Funds and will ensure that such a conflict is resolved fairly and in the best interests of the Investors.
- (g) The Management Company has adopted a policy designed to ensure that its service providers act in a Sub-Fund's best interests when executing decisions to deal and placing orders to deal on behalf of the Sub-Fund in the context of managing the Sub-Fund's portfolio. In such circumstances, the Investment Manager may enter into soft commission agreements or similar arrangements with such brokers. Under such arrangements, the Investment Manager must ensure that the broker or counterparty to the arrangement has agreed to provide best execution to the Sub-Funds. The benefit provided must assist the Investment Manager in its provision of investment services to the Sub-Funds.

9 Index Deletions

Except for constituents removed from the underlying index by the Monthly Shariah Review (see the underlying index methodology), constituents removed from the Underlying index are removed from the index simultaneously. If a constituent is deleted between rebalancings, the next largest stock, by 6M ADVT as of the prior quarterly rebalancing, is added as a replacement in order to maintain a target constituent count of 20. Constituents added under the replacement rule are added at the stock's float-adjusted market capitalization weight.

Monthly Shariah Review Removal: Constituents removed from the underlying index as part of the monthly Shariah review are retained in the index until the subsequent rebalancing.

Constituent Weighting: At each rebalancing, the index is capped market capitalization weighted, with constituents' FMC weights capped by the following constraints, if necessary:

- If the largest constituent's weight exceeds 33%, that constituent is capped at 33%.

- If the weight of any other constituent is greater than 19%, that constituent is capped at 19%.

Any excess weight due to capping is proportionally redistributed to uncapped constituents. The process continues iteratively until both constraints are satisfied.

Index Maintenance: All index adjustments and corporate action treatments follow the underlying index.

Rebalancing: The index rebalances quarterly, effective prior to the open of the Monday following the third Friday of March, June, September, and December. The rebalancing reference date is the close of the last business day of the previous month. The reference date for prices used for the weighting process is the close of the Wednesday prior to the second Friday of the rebalancing month.

Currency of Calculation: The index calculates in U.S. dollars, Indian Rupee, and Emirati dirhams.

Exchange Rate: Refinitiv FOREX spot rates, RIC ticker “AED=” and “INR=”, are taken daily at 9:00 AM London Time and used in the calculation of the index.

The index applies a capping screen of 35 / 20. This is to allow the Sub-Fund, whose policy is to replicate the index, to invest up to 20% of its net assets in individual securities with the 20% limit being raised up to 35% in the case of a single issuer where justified by exceptional market conditions. The index provider, Standard and Poor's, has set triggers in place of at 33% / 19% respectively to reset levels to ensure compliance at all times. The index methodology setting out the weighted and capping methodology can be found in the following link, under S&P: <https://www.spglobal.com/spdji/en/indices/equity/sp-india-shariah-liquid-35-20-capped-index-aed-custom/#overview>.

Methodology

The S&P index upon which the Index is based will be maintained in accordance with S&P's present methodology and any changes, adjustments, enhancements or other modifications to the S&P Index shall be at S&P's full discretion. The India companies are chosen in accordance with the S&P Dow Jones country classification methodology which can be found at: <https://www.spglobal.com/spdji/en/indices/equity/sp-india-shariah-liquid-35-20-capped-index-aed-custom/#overview>.

Index Calculations

The indices are all calculated end-of-day, using the divisor methodology used in all S&P Dow Jones Indices' equity indices, and are calculated six days a week, Sunday through Friday.

The Sub-Fund is subject to tracking error risk, which is the risk that its returns may not track exactly those of the Index.

- The nation's cost of living (purchasing power) is below the EM IPR threshold for three consecutive years.

Exclusion criteria ("3 for 3" rule): An existing country in the index will no longer be eligible if ALL of the following three criteria are met for three consecutive years:

- GNI per capita should be above the IIC threshold,
- Cost of living of the country, as defined by IPR (relative to that of the US), should be above the EM threshold, and
- Sovereign credit rating should be at or above A3/A-/A-.

Bonds must be labeled as Sukuk and have to satisfy the minimum amount outstanding criterion of $500 million. Furthermore, only Investment Grade instruments are eligible. At each month-end, instruments that fall below 12 months to maturity during the upcoming month, will be excluded from the Index.

Issuer type

The J.P. Morgan Global IG Sukuk Index contains only those bonds issued by sovereign, quasi-sovereign, corporate and supranational entities from index-eligible countries. Quasi-sovereign entities are defined as being 100% guaranteed or 100% owned by the national government.

Weighting Methodology

The J.P. Morgan Global IG Sukuk Index follows the traditional market-capitalization weight approach to determine each instrument's allocation in the index (i.e. dirty price times notional amount outstanding). Bond level weights can be summed to the aggregate country/issuer level in the index.]²⁴
