

Anan Investment Holding Announces Commencing the Issuance of Title Deeds for Arabian Hills Project via the Real Estate Centre in the Emirate of Abu Dhabi

Anan Investment Holding (listed on the Abu Dhabi Securities Exchange) wishes to inform its shareholders and investors that the official issuance of title deeds for the units of the Arabian Hills project has officially commenced through the Real Estate Centre in the Emirate of Abu Dhabi.

This announcement marks a historic milestone in the project's journey, transitioning Arabian Hills from the development and planning phase to the official legal delivery of properties. This step bolsters confidence among investors and buyers alike and reinforces the legal protection of property rights in accordance with the approved real estate legislation in the Emirate.

The commencement of issuing title deeds through the Real Estate Centre reflects our steadfast commitment to our investors and buyers and confirms that the project is progressing steadily according to the set timelines. This achievement is a testament to the robustness of our operational and legal framework and marks the beginning of a new phase of growth and added value for our valued shareholders.

The company will continue to issue title deeds in a regular and organized manner and will disclose any material updates in compliance with the regulatory requirements of the Abu Dhabi Securities Exchange.
