*Independent Auditors' Report on Review of Condensed Consolidated Interim Financial Statements
30 June 2026*

Scope of Review

We conducted our review in accordance with the International Standard on Review Engagements 2410, "Review of Interim Financial Information Performed by the Independent Auditor of the Entity". A review of condensed consolidated interim financial statements consists of making inquiries, primarily of persons responsible for financial and accounting matters, and applying analytical and other review procedures. A review is substantially less in scope than an audit conducted in accordance with International Standards on Auditing and consequently does not enable us to obtain assurance that we would become aware of all significant matters that might be identified in an audit. Accordingly, we do not express an audit opinion.

Conclusion

Based on our review, nothing has come to our attention that causes us to believe that the accompanying 30 June 2026 condensed consolidated interim financial statements are not prepared, in all material respects, in accordance with IAS 34, 'Interim Financial Reporting'.

3. Material accounting policies (continued)b) New and revised IFRS in issue but not yet effective and not early adopted*New standards and significant amendments to standards applicable to the Group*Effective date*IFRS 18 - Presentation and Disclosure in Financial Statements

1 January 2027

IFRS 18 will replace IAS 1 - 'Presentation of Financial Statements' and applies for annual reporting periods beginning on or after 1 January 2027. The new standard introduces the following new key requirements:

- Entities are required to classify all income and expenses into five categories in the statement of profit or loss, namely the operating, investing, financing, discontinued operations and income tax categories. Entities are also required to present a newly defined operating profit subtotal. Entities' net profit will not change.
- Management defined performance measures (MPMs) are disclosed in a single note in the financial statements/
- Enhanced guidance is provided on how to group information in the financial statements.

In addition, all entities are required to use the operating profit sub total as the starting point for the statement of cash flows when presenting operating cash flows under the indirect method.

The Group is currently assessing the impact of the above amendments on the future financial statements and intends to adopt these, if applicable, when they become effective.

4. Key accounting estimates and judgments

The preparation of condensed consolidated interim financial statements requires management to make judgements, estimates and assumptions that affect the application of accounting policies and the reported amounts of assets, liabilities, income and expenses. Actual results may differ from these estimates.

In preparing these condensed consolidated interim financial statements, significant judgement is exercised by management in applying the Group's accounting policies. The key sources of estimation uncertainty are consistent with the annual audited consolidated financial statements of the Group as at and for the year ended 31 December 2025.

4. Key accounting estimates and judgments (continued)i) Use of estimates and judgements

The IFRS 9 Committee has reviewed the inputs and assumptions for IFRS 9 ECL measurement in light of available information which are in line with the inputs and assumptions used by the Group during the year ended 31 December 2025.

Following both regulatory mandates and industry standards, TTC PDs are adjusted based on internal rating grades that reflect historical default rates. The Group has integrated LGD models for its various portfolios, such as secured and unsecured corporate and retail portfolios. These models are based on the actual recovery rates as observed over the period of more than ten years.

Judgement is also required in estimating EAD, particularly for Islamic financing commitments, including letters of credit and financial guarantee, and financing facilities such as covered cards, where deterioration in the macro-economic environment is generally accompanied by an increase in the volumes and duration of the drawdowns. Credit conversion factor used by the Bank for unutilized limits has been computed at 20% in case of retail exposures as well as corporate exposures with remaining maturity of less than one year or 50% in case of corporate exposures with remaining maturity of more than one year.

The Group considers a range of possible outcomes and their respective probabilities, and to apply judgement in determining what constitutes reasonable and forward looking information. Estimates and underlying assumptions are reviewed on an ongoing basis and are based on historical experiences and other factors, including the recent regional military escalations that have increased uncertainty across the Gulf region and may impact the Group's operating environment as detailed below:

Regional Geopolitical Developments

During the six month period ended 30 June 2026, evolving regional geopolitical landscape in parts of the Middle East increased uncertainty in the economic environment. The situation continues to evolve and has had secondary impacts in several countries across the Middle East including UAE, causing disruption to some business and economic activities. This has brought about additional uncertainties in the economic environment.

Management has closely monitored these requirements and performed a preliminary assessment of the potential impact of the above on key sectors and counterparties, including a review of exposures in potentially affected industries such as real estate for the Group. As part of this assessment, the management has considered the impact of higher volatility in the forward-looking macro-economic factors, when determining the severity and likelihood of economic scenarios for ECL measurement.

For the purpose of ECL determination as of 30 June 2026, the Bank applied probability weightings of 50% to the downside and 50% to the base scenario. This resulted in additional impairment provisions which have been included in the net impairment charge of AED 41.2 million for the six month period ended 30 June 2026.

The Bank's business continuity planning framework and other risk management practices remain in place to respond to any potential operational or business disruption arising from the evolving regional situation.

The Group has also considered relevant regulatory guidance, including support measures made available by the CBUAE effective from 17 March 2026 and applicable initially until 30 June 2026 and subsequently extended till 30 September 2026 under the Financial Institution Resilience Package providing temporary liquidity and capital flexibility measures to eligible banks. As part of the Package, Banks may benefit from the Reserve Balance Measure allowing penalty-free drawdown of up to 30% of minimum reserve requirements, enhancing liquidity management flexibility, if required. Additionally, the CBUAE has granted banks access to collateralized term liquidity facilities in Dirhams – Contingent Liquidity Insurance Facility ("CLIF") and US Dollar – USD Dollar Liquidity Facility ("USDLF") under Pillar III of the DMF regulation CBUAE/MMD/2022/333 (January 2022) to manage potential liquidity stress. As at 30 June 2026, the Group has utilized these relief measures on a case-to-case basis, noting minimal usage and having no significant impact from a credit risk perspective as of 30 June 2026.

5. Financial risk management

The Group's financial risk management objectives, policies and procedures are consistent with those disclosed in the annual consolidated financial statements as at and for the year ended 31 December 2025.

i) Fair value measurement of financial instruments

The Bank's existing policy on fair value measurement of financial instruments is disclosed in note 3 (b) to the annual audited consolidated financial statements of the Group as at and for the year ended 31 December 2025.

ii) Concentration analysis

Please refer to note 10.1 (a) and (b) to the condensed consolidated interim financial statements, which discloses the product and sector wise categorization of Investment in Islamic financing as at 30 June 2026. The Group's financial risk management objectives, policies and procedures are consistent with those disclosed in the annual consolidated financial statements as at and for the year ended 31 December 2025.

iii) Profit rate risk

The principal risk to which non-trading portfolios are exposed, is the risk of loss from fluctuations in the future cash flows or fair values of financial instruments because of a change in market profit rates. Profit rate risk primarily comprises of market and valuation risk, are managed on the basis of pre-determined asset allocations across various asset categories, a continuous appraisal of market conditions and trends and management's estimate of long and short term changes in fair value. Overall pricing or profit rate risk positions are managed by the Asset and Liability Committee ("ALCO").

The sensitivity of the condensed consolidated statement of profit or loss is the effect of the assumed changes in profit rates on the net income.

24. Related parties (continued)

The ultimate controlling party of the Bank is the Government of Sharjah. Major shareholders of the Bank comprise of fully owned entities of the Government of Sharjah namely Sharjah Asset Management LLC and Sharjah Social Security Fund who hold 25.00% and 19.69% of the Bank's issued and fully paid up share capital respectively as at 30 June 2026 (As at 31 December 2025: 28.46% and 16.12% respectively).

25. Fair value measurement

The Group measures fair values using the following fair value hierarchy, which reflects the significance of the inputs used in making the measurements.

Level 1: inputs that are quoted market prices (unadjusted) in active markets for identical instruments.

Level 2: inputs other than quoted prices included within Level 1 that are observable either directly (i.e. as prices) or indirectly (i.e. derived from prices). This category includes instruments valued using quoted market prices in active markets for similar instruments; quoted prices for identical or similar instruments in markets that are considered less than active; or other valuation techniques in which all significant inputs are directly or indirectly observable from market data.

Level 3: inputs that are unobservable. This category includes all instruments for which the valuation technique includes inputs not based on observable data and the unobservable inputs have a significant effect on the instrument's valuation. This category includes instruments that are valued based on quoted prices for similar instruments for which significant unobservable adjustments or assumptions are required to reflect differences between the instruments.

The Group recognises transfers between levels of the fair value hierarchy at the end of the reporting period during which the change has occurred.

Valuation techniques include net present value and discounted cash flow models, comparison to similar instruments for which market observable prices exist, and other valuation models. Assumptions and inputs used in valuation techniques include risk-free and benchmark profit rates, credit spreads in estimating discount rates, sukuk and equity prices, foreign currency exchange rates, equity and equity index prices and expected price volatilities and correlations. The objective of valuation techniques is to arrive at a fair value measurement that reflects the price that would be received to sell the asset or paid to transfer the liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date.

The Group has an established control framework with respect to the measurement of fair values. This framework includes a valuation function, which is independent of front office management and reports to the Investment Committee, and which has overall responsibility for independently verifying the results of trading and investment operations and all significant fair value measurements.

Specific controls include:

- verification of observable pricing;
- re-performance of model valuations;
- a review and approval process for new models and changes to models involving valuation function;
- calibration and back-testing of models against observed market transactions at regular intervals;
- analysis and investigation of significant valuation movements; and
- review of significant unobservable inputs, valuation adjustments and significant changes to the fair value measurement of Level 3 instruments compared with the previous month, by Investment Committee.

Significant valuation issues are reported to the Investment Committee.

This has no impact on condensed consolidated interim statement of cash flows for the six month period ended 30 June 2026 or 30 June 2025.

Unobservable inputs used in measuring fair value

The investment department constantly monitors the progress of its investments by conducting its own valuation assessment along with information provided by the fund manager. Depending on the nature of the underlying asset, quantitative methods are used such as residual value, discounted cash flow / scenario analysis or comparable market valuation. Qualitative methods which involve taking into consideration the market & economic outlook are also employed. The carrying amount of the investment properties is the fair value of the properties as determined by an independent appraiser having an appropriate recognised professional qualification and recent experience in the location and category of the property being valued and is reviewed by the Board of Directors on an annual basis. The valuation techniques used for fair valuation of the investment properties were disclosed in the consolidated financial statements for the year ended 31 December 2025.

The effect of unobservable input on fair value measurement

Although the Group believes that its estimates of fair value are appropriate, the use of different methodologies or assumptions could lead to different measurements of fair value. For fair value measurements in Level 3, changing one or more of the assumptions by 10% would have the following effects:

	Effect on profit or loss		Effect on OCI
